Tiān fēn = virtue, a guideline for the proper course of action. Care value of five (combined of 3 basic virtues: righteousness, generosity, honesty, diligence and kindness).

During the era of Ancient Schools of Thought in the period of Spring and Autumn, the philosopher Confucius, born in the state of Lu, now discussed the most. He advocated that the best government is one that rules through "Li" and "De". His teachings had profoundly influenced China and China after, and he was later known as the "Great Teacher for Ten Thousand Ages".

Tiān qì = qi, how one should behave himself. The teachings of it promoted ideas such as that submission, brotherhood, righteousness, good faith and loyalty.

Lao Zi*

Tiān Master Lao*, or Old Master

Kong Zi*

Tiān Confucius, Great Master Kong

Li Er, also known as Lao Zi, was another philosopher who had influenced our modern way of thinking. Presumably unlike Confucius, he did not have a political career or followers. However, he was considered the founder of Taoism and revered as a deity post-mortem.

According to the history, Lao Zi was born in 6th century BCE. However, some legends claimed that he was actually born during the dynasty of Zhou. Out of the few that claimed to have seen his face, all lived in different eras.

Tiān 5th-4th century BCE, concurrent with the era of Hundred schools of thought and warring states period

Early the next morning, Lao Zi and his disciples gathered for ten thousand miles, concluding himself, and helped Lao Zi to produce Dao.

It was said that the Grand Daoist Lao Zi had met with Lao Zi and concluded his work, about the meaning of Dao.

Only Lao Zi and his disciples, on the other hand, were very strange and Lao Zi had no other disciples, but Lao Zi and his disciples were very strange.

Dao De Jing

It is the only book in the world that has been written by Lao Zi.

Lao Zi never wrote a single book in his life. The only piece of work he left behind was written by the companion of the scholar Mountain Pass, Yin Xi, who he met during his travels to the West. Knowing Lao Zi as one of the famous sages who had never met again, Yin Xi feared for seven days and nights and finally got Lao Zi to dictate. He then copied his teachings into golden slips, to be passed from generation to generation until now, and with it Yin Xi immortalized his monumental work.

It is the only book in the world that has been written by Lao Zi. It is the only book in the world that has been written by Lao Zi.

Laid hidden deep within Dao De Jing was the world's greatest knowledge. It possessed the secrets of the universe and held the laws of nature. If used for humanity, it could save the world. If used for oneself, it could lead him to the path of immortality. If used for martial arts, it would allow him to obtain godly power of unimaginable heights.

Kunlun Elder is the senior of Qin's High Priest and Master of Sheng Gong Zi. He had always enjoyed traveling the world, so what reason does he have to appear here and now?
